Application Process:

Stage 1: Initial Application

- CV / Personal written statement;
- General questions (word number limited to 300 for each question)
 - Why are you deserving of this bursary?
 - What difference would this bursary make to your career?
 - How will what you do with this bursary impact society?

A Committee will make the initial selection, i.e. derive a short-list from the received applications. The number of candidates short-listed will be at the discretion of the Committee.

Stage 2: Shortlisting

- Shortlisted candidates to give an oral presentation of not more than 10 minutes summarising and updating their application before a quorum of the Charity Trustees.

- The Board will make the final selection with the Chair to have the casting vote. The decision of the Board is conclusive and binding. There is no appeals process.

Conditions of Award

- For the WIN Bursary (Arts), there will be a one off payment to the successful candidate on provision that it is specifically applied by the candidate for the disbursement of the relevant educational purpose of the bursary (The Bursary (Education) will be paid directly to the education provider);
- Successful applicant will agree to an amount of promotional activity, e.g. appearance at launch of bursary, name and photograph to be published on the WIN website and in other charitable materials and documentation.
- Successful applicant will give WIN an annual update on progress for the term of the bursary and for 1 year after successful completion of the course / creative activity.

Evaluation / review process

- On completion of the course / creative activity, the successful applicant will engage with WIN for a period of [x years on an annual basis] to help evaluate / review the success / impact of the bursary.
- Feedback may include:
 - Updates to the questions asked on application, i.e.
 - What difference did this bursary make to your career? For example, did it help generate new income, create new employment for you and others, reach new audiences, advance education and accessibility for others?
 - How did the bursary help you impact society?
- Feedback will be used to inform the bursary for future awards.

Considerations

The WIN will comply with all requirements of the GDPR and other applicable legislation.
